Participant Comments

"As with many Canadians, I've been laid off during one of the worst crises of my lifetime. I was discouraged to start all over again, not knowing where to begin. Dave's process of analysis, self-reflection and peer review has helped me clarify what forces drive me, how others see me and how to more effectively communicate with others. Major life changes can be scary, but going through these exercises has helped solidify my belief that I'm now headed in the right direction.

Thank you Dave for your insight!" -Sheridan B.

"I have noticed a remarkable improvement in our manager. It is like a light has come on for him. I would recommend Dave as a coach to anyone" -
