

The Power of Attitude & Gratitude

Understanding the impact of a more positive focus at work and at home

Showing your appreciation to other people is crucial for any organization to thrive. This session will explore two critical factors that create strong bonds between people

Recent Gallup Poll Data indicates the following:
79% of people who quit their jobs do so because they do not feel appreciated

Is this affecting you or your organization?

Dave will share his experiences in a recent life event. His positive attitude and his feelings of gratitude led to a remarkable result. He will also provide examples of things you can do to create a work/life environment of positive energy and gratitude towards others. He will help you to create your personal “Gratitude Wall”

Participant Comments

Here are some comments from a recent offering:

“It was well put together and I have been applying it to my everyday life right now. Dave is a very knowledgeable person and I believe his experience and views are great to share with everyone who wants to learn.” - BD

“Dave’s personal stories added real life examples to ‘cement’ in the importance to have Attitude and Gratitude every day.” - JM

Scheduled Dates - TBA

Online Sessions 8:30 am to noon each day

Fall waiting list – please call if interested

Registration Costs

$245, plus HST.

Includes a Behavioural Assessment.

Sample: <https://neely-training.com/wp-content/uploads/2020/01/Behaviours.pdf>

Who should attend this session?

Anyone who wants to create a more positive environment at work and home

About The Facilitator

Dave Neely is a Kingston-based speaker and training consultant. You will enjoy his passion and practical insights into human behavior.

Available on Demand

- Customized In-house workshops
- Keynotes
- Individual Coaching

For More Info

D.K. Neely & Associates

Phone (613) 546-6532

Email:

dkneely1@outlook.com

www.neely-training.com

